Hall—Burke

Miss Gertrude Douglass Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Burke, and Joseph M. Hall were married yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Dr. Leaning Clark officiating.

The attendants were Miss Virginia Burke, maid of honor; Dave O'Neill, of Jacksonville, Fla., best man, and Mary Burke, flower girl. Barrett White and Allen Williams, of this city, and Frank Rolston, of Knoxville, and Robert Turner, of Nashville, were ushers.

Paris R. Meyers and Stewart Roberts furnished the nuptial musical selections. Before the arrival of the bride party, Mr. Roberts sang "O Perfect Love." "I Love You Truly" and other popular selections were rendered during the ceremony. The bride chorus from "Lohengrin" was played for the processional and the party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a dress of blue tricotine, beaded in steel and Copenhagen blue. Her fall hat was of blue with a draped lace veil. Her accessories were of black and she wore a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Burke appeared in a black moroccan crepe dress with a large black picture hat. Her flowers were Richmond red roses. Little Miss Burke wore a costume of pale blue taffeta, with hat of the same material. The wedding ring was concealed in a French bouquet of rosebuds. Mrs. Burke was gowned in brown georgette crepe with hat to harmonize.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for a trip to Florida and Cuba. On their return they will occupy an apartment in the Burke home on Missionary ridge.

Mrs. Guy Hall, of Birmingham, Ala.; A. E. Hall, of Huntingdon, and B. H. Hall, of Denver, were the out-of-town guests for the wedding.

Mrs. Hall is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burke and was educated at G.P.S. Mr. Hall is the son of Mrs. E. G. Hall and the late Mr. Hall, of Huntingdon. He is connected with the passenger department of the N., C. & St. L. railway—Chattanooga Times, Sunday, October 16.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our deep gratitude to all of our friends for their kindness and help upon the occasion of the funeral and burial of our beloved wife and mother. C. P. PRIESTLY, MR. and MRS. W. C. SHERWOOD.

TOWN PESTS

The Town Dog, he barks at Cats and makes Friends with Tramps, chases Cats, scares Little Girls, digs Holes in the Flower Bed, starts rowdy Street Fights, Tracks up the Kitchen Floor, fills the Yard with Junk and Bones, and wakes Folks up at Night howling at the Moon.

Substitutes for Tea.

There are more than 30 plants used in different parts of the world as substitutes for tea. One of them comes from the dried leaves of a fragrant orchid, a parasite like the mistletoe, and allied to the well-known vanilla of the odor of which it reminds us. The Africans have long used its leaves as medicine, and the infusion of them as a drink. Its taste is something between vanilla and bitter almonds.

Snake No Match for Ants.

That ants should be able to kill a snake may seem incredible, at first. When an enemy is sighted the alarm is given at once and the whole community of ants arises in a body. They set upon the reptile, striking their nippers into it at thousands of points. The attack is made with such enormous numbers that the snake has no chance of escaping. When the snake is dead the ants will tear off the flesh in small pieces, taking all away with them except the bones and skin.

Opossum Pest.

The species of opossum native to New Zealand wears a very beautiful coat which does not resemble that affected by the opossum of this country. The animal which was introduced into Australia many years ago destroys fruit trees and is regarded as a pest, but opossum skins are so valuable that its value as a fur bearer outweighs any damage it may do the trees.

First Used by Play Writer.

"When Greek meets Greek" is probably a perversion of the old familiar quotation "When Greeks joined Greeks then was the tug of war," found in act 4, scene 2, "Alexander the Great," by Nathaniel Lee (1655-1692). By this phrase is meant that when one expert fighter meets another expert fighter the result is vigorous action and the outcome so far as who will win is concerned is in doubt.

Badly Behaved Hens.

Little Janet, from the city, had been in the country only one day, but the rights of property owners and property renters were already firmly fixed in her mind. "Mother!" she called, excitedly, the morning after their arrival. "Mother! Just come here and look! There are somebody's hens wiping their feet on our nice clean grass."—Harper's.

Walter Berryhill

Walter Berryhill, 60, died at his home in the New Hope community, several miles north of Trezevant, of paralysis. He is survived by a number of relatives. Burial took place in the New Hope cemetery. He was an upright citizen and stood high in the esteem of those who knew him.

Mule Ran Away

Geo Kelly while driving through town Monday his mule became unruly and ran away with him. Mr. Kelly jumped from the buggy and struck a post, cutting a place on his lip. The buggy was considerably damaged. The mule escaped unhurt.

Hollow Rock Items

Mrs. John Pollen is on the sick list this week.

Miss Velma King spent Sunday with home folk at Vale.

McLEMORESVILLE ITEMS

D. A. Graves has moved back to his home in the eighth district.

E. E. Adams has begun his new residence on Trenton street west of town.

Mrs. J. A. Brown is back at her post in the M. C. L., after an illness of several days.

Mrs. R. S. Robinson visited her daughter, Mrs. D. T. Murchison, at Atwood last week end.

Miss Thelma Bramley was called from Knoxville Friday night, on account of the death of her grandfather.

Clarence Dunn and sisters, Misses Cleo and Florence, are back in school after a week's stay at home.

Miss Ita Roach Newson and Lucy Yancey came from Jackson to attend the funeral of J. H. Bramley Saturday.

Mrs. S. E. Carter attended the W. C. T. U. meeting at Jackson this week and visited her daughter, Miss Miriam, who is there attending school.

Dr. Joe Carter is visiting relatives and friends in Carroll county. He conducted the funeral of J. H. Bramley Saturday and preached two excellent sermons Sunday.

Rev. Jacob Bryant, of McKenzie, the new pastor of the C. P. church, filled his first appointments here the second Sunday morning and evening, preaching two fine sermons.

The town of McLemoresville loses one of its best citizens in the death of J. H. Bramley, who has been in business here for nearly 40 years. He was just past 60 years and leaves a wife and two sons, Dorsey P. and J. Adrian, both of McLemoresville. Mr. Bramley had been failing in health for several years and although his death was not altogether unexpected it was a shock to the family and community. One of the largest crowds that ever assembled at a funeral here paid the last tribute of respect to his memory Saturday afternoon.
